
Emerging economies: cases and comparisons

a symposium

Foreword

This symposium is based on three papers presented in the First workshop of the Turin Center on Emerging Economies, Turin 12-13, March 2015) and in the Rome World Conference on Comparative Economics (25-27, June 2015).

We thank the authors, the organizers of the two events, the discussants and the referees of the papers. Ejes will devote in the future some other papers or special issues on the different experiences of main emerging economies.

Outward Foreign Direct Investment from BRIC countries: Comparing strategies of Brazilian, Russian, Indian and Chinese multinational companies

By Wladimir Andreff

79-131

Structural Change, Globalization and Economic Growth in China and India

By Vittorio Valli and Donatella Saccone

133-163

Structural Change and Mid-Income Trap – Under which conditions can China succeed in moving towards higher income status?

By Helmut Wagner

165-188