
Call for papers:

The African economy

June 2015

The European Journal of Comparative Economics together with the Italian Society for the Study of Comparative Economics plan a special issue of the journal on the African economy.

Theoretical, methodological and empirical research and policy papers are welcome provided that they are based on the conceptual foundation of the comparative perspective.

We expect papers dealing with the following issues:

- AID policy and its development effects
- Economic Development
- Development post 2008 global economics crisis
- Africa as a destination of Foreign Direct Investments
- Inequality-Poverty-Growth-Environment Nexus
- Multidimensional poverty, inequality, vulnerability, well-being
- Productivity and growth and their social dimensions
- Inclusive growth and development
- Welfare program and policies
- Regional cooperation
- Intra-African trade, opportunities, challenges and barriers
- Urbanization and infrastructure services
- Entrepreneurship and innovation
- Rural development

Please submit your through the website of the European Journal of Comparative Economics <http://eaces.liuc.it/> by 1 June 2015 specifying in the cover letter that the paper is intended for the Special issue on African Economy. After submission please notify the Guest editor of the issue (Roberto Ricciuti, email: roberto.ricciuti@univr.it). Papers will undergo the usual refereeing process.