

European
EJCE
Journal of Comparative Economics

Contents

Rethinking comparative economics Giovanni B. Ramello	177-190
Comparative economics in a changing world and the role of Europe Enrico Marelli, Marcello Signorelli	191-216
Public-sector organizations and the dynamics of public cash: evidence from data on public transactions Peter Grajzl, Barbara Mörec	217-242
Homo Economicus is also a social animal; ergo, he can be taxed (all but costlessly) Michael Keren	243-263
Reciprocal privacy invasion and taxation of online map services Koji Domon, Michael Y. Yuan, Zhengyi Zhang	265-286
Reciprocal privacy invasion and taxation of online map services Wladimir Andreff	287-318